

St Mary in the Valley and St Edmunds Tharwa
Prayer Notes – November 2016

Thank you for your support in this prayer ministry for St Mary in the Valley.

Give thanks that God has called us to be a part of SMIV, the Tuggeranong Valley Community, St Edmunds Tharwa and the ministry that we have to each other.

Pray that through the Holy Spirit, God will continue to share His vision for this parish and that He will continue to provide all of the resources we need for the growth and administration of SMIV, including people and financial resources.

Pray for Dave McLennan who will be inducted as our new Rector on 9Nov. Pray for his family as they settle into be a part of SMIV

Give thanks for all who are involved in parish ministry and pray:

We give thanks for Chris' leadership as our Locum

- that more people will volunteer their time to assist in the various ministries,
- share their gifts of hospitality, and

Give thanks for those:

- gifted with their hands and maintain the building, grounds and gardens,
- care for us,
- facilitate worship, teach our young, lead or assist in groups, and
- the Parish Council, uphold the wardens and council praying for wisdom and guidance.

You may also wish to select eg 10 families per week from the Parish Roll and pray for them.

Sunday

Pray and give thanks for:

- The community of SMIV for freedom to worship God openly and for the calling to be a beacon to others in the Valley.
- Sunday worship, for all who are involved in setting up for the services, the sacristan, ushers, servers, lay readers.
- Pray for those who develop our services and for our Christmas worship
- praying that we will continue to be open to the touch of the Spirit especially as they prepare for services; may our services continue to be a true expression of our love for You
- The ministry we have to each other.
- The ministry to the sick and dying.
- For those who are studying to improve their relationship with the community of faith.
- Those attending church today that all will be blessed, in a way that they will know can only be of God.

Pray for companionship for the lonely, comfort for the sorrowing and relief for those in pain. Increase in us a spirit of compassion that we may not add to the suffering of others, but comfort and befriend those who are in need.

Monday

Pray for:

- the Diocese, Bishop Stuart, as he leads us, and Assistant Bishops Trevor and Matt., for protection and refreshment.
- the people of St Edmunds Tharwa,
- countries experiencing and recovering from natural disaster and the peoples particularly for the people of Nepal, China, the US who have lost loved ones and incomes, for those people affected by flooding in SA, Vic and NSW
- For those people who have fled persecution, praying for their safety and rescue by the international community.
- Sunday Club activities, upholding and giving thanks for the teachers and assistants and for the children and the blessing they are to us. Pray for that God will raise up new people during the year to offer their gifts and talents in this important ministry
- For the Kingdom Kids the leaders, the children and their families
- Youth Group – Praying for increased membership.
- We pray for peace in the Middle East, for an end to the violence and bloodshed. For those people who suffer from injustice and the difficulty of everyday life, praying that they will not lose hope in your justice and mercy. We pray that they do not give in to despair and continue to place their hope for a better future in the strength of your hope.

Those involved in pastoral care and ministry to the sick, pray that God will raise up others who want to share in this ministry.

Saturday

Pray and give thanks for:

- ❖ Our Sunday worship and for all involved in the worship.
- ❖ Pray that all who attend church tomorrow will be blessed in a special way by God.
- ❖ Uphold the Wednesday services and Thursday Evening prayer and for blessing of all attending.
- ❖ Uphold the parish prayer ministry, praying that more people will seek to be involved.
- ❖ Gracious God, We pray for peace in our communities this day.

We commit to you all who work for peace and an end to tensions,
 And those who work to uphold law and justice.

We pray for an end to fear, for comfort and support to those who suffer.

For calm in our streets and cities, that people may go about their lives in safety and peace. We uphold our Muslim sisters and brothers as they feel victimised, praying that they will recognise that not all in the community are against them.

Prayers of the People for Reconciliation and Recognition of all Indigenous People

Pray that we be open to a renewed relationship with Father through Jesus. Praying also that we will give thanks for His provision, for His creation and the care that we need to preserve the environment. Praying further that we look for Jesus in all those we meet.

For the Sick

Continue to pray for those we know are sick, giving thanks for healing.

Ephesians 6: 18 "And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests.

I pray that you will feel so moved to respond to my plea. May God richly bless you in all you are doing in His name.

Such prayer for one another is most effective, and is a profound expression of love and solidarity within the Body of Christ
